POLICY ON THE ONGOING FORMATION OF DEACONS

Permanent deacons have a responsibility to deepen their spiritual lives and to develop their ministerial abilities. This ongoing formation, with sensitivity to cultural diversity, is to include, as a minimum, the following:

- I. Not less than a three-day annual RETREAT and participation in the annual CONVOCATION OF DEACONS; these activities are required.
  - A. The place of primary ministry shall pay for expenses up to $300 for the annual retreat and up to $200 for the annual convocation.
  - B. Wives of deacons are encouraged to attend an annual retreat and the convocation. It is recommended that the place of primary ministry pay for related expenses.
- II. Deacons are expected to participate annually in thirty (30) hours of diocesan sponsored in-service training programs and of other freely chosen ministerial enrichment activities. The place of primary ministry shall pay for expenses up to $350.
- III. Deacons are expected to participate in ongoing spiritual direction and to pray morning and evening prayer from the Liturgy of the Hours.
- IV. Deacons are encouraged to participate in a diaconal community support group for the purpose of prayer, mutual sharing and reflection.
  - A. Diaconal support groups may be organized along deanery or regional lines, by ordination class, or among those involved in similar areas of ministry.
  - B. Wives of deacons are encouraged to participate in such support groups or to form similar groups of their own to focus on their personal needs and concerns.
